The Pastor's Perspective

Forty Lenten Days for repentance at last past, now comes Fifty Easter Days for revelation.

These Easter Season inspires not only our continued reflection but also our desire to act upon the true joy of abundant life won for us by the crucified and risen Lord.

This glorious time offered to us to engage in the continued journey of conversion by a more generous witness to Jesus' very real presence in us to family and neighbors.

His reconciling love, shared first with eleven terrified apostles and a few brave women, changed their lives.

For us Easter cannot be some quaint veneer for modern society's annual Rite of Spring, but can be seen by Jesus' modern disciples, forgiven and blessed, as a renewed call to be changed by His Rising that we may live lives of service to Him and to others.

How can we become truer signs for another of His forgiveness and blessing in the coming weeks?

The Paschal Mystery--Christ has died--Christ is risen--Christ will come again--has to be seen in our selflessness each day for Easter's joyful truth to become believably evident!

My prayer for us is that we will refuse to see Easter as just another day, and make it a entire season of renewed effort which will allow our faith and love for the Risen One help us to raise up others by renewed prayer, as well as acts of kindness and compassion.

Like Magdalen, Jesus sends us to our brothers and sisters to reveal that we have seen and know Him, alive and active in our world today!

Fr. Bob Burkemper
