The Pastor's Perspective

Today I am happy to announce that next year St. Elizabeth's Parish School of Religion Program (PSR) offered for our children in public elementary schools will next year become the Seton Regional Parish School of Religion, as we unite our parish program with that of Sts. Robert and Peter Parishes.

As we discussed the shared nature of Seton Regional Catholic School and Impact Youth Ministry, the topic of the two Parish Schools of Religion was raised by the pastoral team.

Father Seper noted his parish's catechetical experience seemed fragmented as programs are being held at the St. Robert site for PSR and at St. Elizabeth site for the shared Regional Catholic School.

After reflection, it was agreed that a unified Parish School of Religion held at the St. Elizabeth site was possible, appropriate and cost effective, and would foster outreach to the children and young people of this area.

The PSR experience will remain they have been for our current PSR families, with Mrs. Linda Rathz as director of the program.

It is hoped that most of our teachers will also return for yet another year as catechists.

I am sure we will welcome the children and teachers of the St. Robert-St. Peter PSR most warmly as we make this transition into a new phase of our continued effort to share the Gospel with yet another generation of young Catholics.

As always I ask for your continued prayerful support of each of the fine catechetical programs offered by St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish.

Fr. Bob Burkemper
